

Superintendent's Chats and Superintendent's Book Study Group

In an interest to meet, listen to and get to know members of the community, Superintendent Dr. Valerie Henning-Piedmonte has created "Superintendent's Chats" which are opportunities for members of the community to meet with her to share information, ideas, suggestions or ask questions over coffee or tea and cookies.

Also, book studies--her personal favorite--will be offered throughout the school year. If you would like to host a book study at your home and invite Dr. Henning-Piedmonte, she would be delighted to attend.
